AGREE REALTY CORPORATION ANNOUNCES MICHIGAN DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

FARMINGTON HILLS, Michigan (November 3, 2008) - Agree Realty Corporation (NYSE: ADC) today announced that it would develop, for retail use, a property located in Kent County, Michigan.

The project, which is pre-leased to a national leader in the U.S. chain drugstore industry, is expected to be completed during the third quarter of 2009. The store will be conveniently located at the intersection of Fulton Street and Bowes Road in the city of Lowell.

"In light of challenging economic conditions we continue to capitalize on high-quality development opportunities for national tenants that provide a significant return on investment as well as minimal development risk," said Joey Agree, Executive Vice President of Agree Realty Corporation. "This project will be an excellent addition to our expanding portfolio of net leased properties. We continue to evaluate and execute on projects that fit within our long-term investment strategy."

Agree Realty Corporation is engaged in the ownership, management and development of properties which are primarily single tenant properties leased to major retail tenants and neighborhood community shopping centers. Agree Realty owns and operates a portfolio of 68 properties, located in 16 states and containing 3.4 million square feet of leasable space.

Agree Realty Corporation considers portions of the information contained in this release to be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 27E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended, with respect to the Company's expectation for future periods.
