AGREE REALTY CORPORATION SELLS IRON MOUNTAIN, MICHIGAN SHOPPING CENTER

FARMINGTON HILLS, Michigan: (November 1, 2005) - Agree Realty Corporation (NYSE: ADC) today announced that it has sold a Community Shopping Center located in Iron Mountain, Michigan. The Company developed Iron Mountain Plaza, a 176,352 square foot shopping center, in 1991. The property is 98% leased and is anchored by Kmart Corporation and Roundy's.

The property was sold to a private investor for approximately $8.8 million.

Agree Realty Corporation is engaged in the ownership, management and development of properties, which are primarily single tenant properties and neighborhood community shopping centers leased to major retail tenants. Agree Realty owns and operates a portfolio of 56 properties, located in 14 states and containing an aggregate 3.3 million square feet in gross leasable area.

Agree Realty Corporation considers portions of the information contained in this release to be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 27E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended, with respect to the Company's expectation for future periods. Such statements are, by their nature, subject to certain risks and uncertainties. The Company cautions that, as a result of a number of factors, actual results could differ materially from those set forth in this presentation. Other risks, uncertainties and factors that could cause actual results to differ materially than those projected are detailed from time to time in reports filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Forms 8-K, 10-Q and 10-K.
